Eve's Mission Steve Shanley

Set in 2058 after the USA has split into three separate nations, the story follows Eve, a 16-year-old girl who lives in Mississippi, which is part of the Christian-governed Free States of America. She's almost done with high school, which is scandalous for girls in its own right, but the fact that she's good at it makes things worse. Her future of being a good housewife for the rest of her life is looming as she tries to find a bigger way to contribute to the Baptist evangelical cause. Determined to matter in this world, Eve blazes a trail on her quest to bring faith to people who have none. It makes sense to bring the good word to the sinners in the USA or whatever's left in the hellscape of Secularia, but a place that dangerous is no place for a woman, let alone a girl...
