Remember before you were husband and wife? You loved spending a lot of time just being with each other. You did not want to do any leisure activity unless you could do it together. Whether it was just walking in the park or watching a movie, any time you spent with each other was truly memorable. You tried to talk and see each other as often as you could. When you can't meet, you found yourself talking on the phone for hours. You talked about everything under the sun – from the food you ate at lunch to your problems at work. When you met personally, both of you received and gave your full attention.

What happened when you got married? Are you like many other married couples who can stay in the same room at the same time and still be ignoring each other emotionally? This can actually get worse. The good news is that there are ways of overcoming this problem that plagues so many marriages, and can lead to divorce.

Here Is A Preview Of What You'll Learn...

- The Secrets To Having a Happy Marriage
- Why So Many Marriages End In Divorce
- How To Understand And Communicate With Your Spouse Better
- What To Do When You Get Into an Argument or Fight With Your Spouse
- How To Spot The Warning Signs of an Unhappy Marriage
