El otro Drácula: Los cuadernos secretos de Jonathan Harker (Libido Pocket) (Spanish Edition) Tony Mark

¿Y si Drácula no hubiera sido el monstruo sanguinario que cree la gente? ¿Qué conocemos realmente de su historia, sino la versión que ha dado Bram Stoker? Parece ser que existe otra, escrita un año antes de la publicación del mítico Drácula: es el diario de Jonathan Harker, ambicioso joven, pasante de notario, enviado al castillo del conde para negociar la venta de una propiedad.

Es precisamente esta versión la que nos ofrece Tony Mark. Un texto asombroso y que no podía ser publicado en una Inglaterra victoriana y puritana. La novela de Stoker ya había aparecido como una destilación impregnada de todos los símbolos de una sexualidad rechazada, pero sin embargo ardiente.

“Nunca has conocido un Drácula como este”

El otro Drácula va aún más lejos, hacia el mundo del placer prohibido y de la lujuria; con un vampiro ávido de savia más que de sangre...

Un nuevo enfoque muy erótico de este mito universal, escrito en el estilo de la época. Una transgresión literaria apasionante, donde, entre perplejidad y emoción, el lector descubre otro Drácula.
