Mrs. Moneypenny--star "Financial Times" columnist, TV personality, wife, mother, and owner of a successful small business--is worried about women. She understands that although women can't have it all, they're expected to do it all. From maintaining a beautiful house and happy children to staying late at work and keeping up with the boys, Mrs. Moneypenny is honest about the difficult choices that working women face. Time is scarce and no woman can manage to excel both at work and at home--but that's okay. Mrs. Moneypenny distills her own experiences and shares observations of other successful working women in this incisive, practical, no-holds-barred guide. All women, from those at the start of their careers to high-level executives, will discover a helping hand and a laugh along the way.
