Designed specifically for world language educators and today's computer-savvy students, eSAM is an advanced and easy-to-use e-learning platform for delivering activities to students via the web. Focus on giving your students the individual feedback they need by saving time on grading workbook and lab manual assignments, customizing activities and questions, and setting up your course in a few simple steps. eSAM also is an integrated course management system that automatically grades many types of exercises and then sends the results straight to an electronic gradebook that allows you to track the results for individual students and your entire class. eSAM even has a floating accent bar for world languages! Students can access eSAM by packaging a printed access card with a new copy of the text.
