Ferdinand: The Bull That Bucked Off Superman (The Altos Cuentos Trail) Cletus Duhon

Ferdinand was a great bull that was almost impossible to ride, and Conley Adrian Hand was a great rodeo cowboy who promoted himself as the superman of bull riders. But their day in the world of rodeo had come and gone, until a couple of high-rolling businessmen decided to set up the match of the century. Cletus Duhon tells this south Texas story with humor in mind, but it's about more than rodeo and bulls. It's also about BS, and some big time BS at that. Any great match needs a great promoter and organizer, so enter Gloria Delaney - gorgeous, powerful, connected, and just the right woman for the job. This story is about political intrigue, betting, power struggles, and how BS is often a useful tool.
