This historic book may have numerous typos, missing text, images, or index. Purchasers can download a free scanned copy of the original book (without typos) from the publisher. 1907. Not illustrated. Excerpt: ... to many who have not spent a long time in the investigation of this complex subject the right still to be sceptical, and especially to doubt the conclusiveness of the facts making for the theory which seems to me the most plausible. I can only say to them that I have not made up my mind upon these facts alone, but upon the whole mass of published and unpublished records of psychical research. What I here publish is but an illustration of some of the most interesting and perhaps most cogent facts. But I shall not insist that they should be conclusive for the sceptic. The utmost that I shall urge upon him is that they make adequate investigation imperative, and seeing that the phenomena illustrate the selective reference to the personal identity of deceased persons I think almost any one will admit that, assuming fraud to have been excluded, they make out a forcible case for the further investigation of spiritistic theories. SPIRIT SLATE-WRITING AND BILLET TESTS.* By David P. Abbott. FIRST ARTICLE. Having been requested by Prof. Hyslop to write a paper on the above subject, I shall give to the readers of this article a description and explanation of a few of the best slate-writing feats and billet tests that are being performed by mediums and conjurers of the present day. I shall make no attempt at explaining a complete list of the many tricks of the kind, for should I do so it would require a large volume to contain them all. * The reader will understand that the word "Spirit" used in the title of this article, merely indicates certain phenomena known under that name; and that "Spirits" in the common acceptance of the term have nothing whatever to do with the performances described herein. Also the word "Medium" used in this article merely indicates th...
