The secret diary of a university student:UNLOCKED!: What is university really like? Mr Orlando Loren

The Secret Diary of a University Student:UNLOCKED... is a lively, captivating and very humorous book, brutally detailing the harsh realities of university life. It covers the in depth emotions felt by students with regards to fees and expenses, bossy landlords, essay writing and personal relationships, as well as providing sometimes very blunt and personal student examples! Orlando Loren, a graduate of 2015, provides readers with a killer insight into what university life will REALLY be like, while motivating prospective students on how to turn their negative experiences into positive, by making it the best opportunity for maturity and personal growth. Our author leads potential students through the university experience in a friendly but honest way, without sounding condescending or ruining student anticipation! Prospective students can genuinely get the best out of university with this very intimate and personal diary.
