More Than a Scandal Sari Robins

In the second book of her exciting new Andersen Hall series, Sari Robins delivers another delightful and fast-paced Regency romance full of emotion and liveliness that is sure to delight her fans.

To exact vengeance on her insidious cousins who betrayed her and concurrently to save the orphanage that rescued her from them, Catherine Miller assumes the mantle of a famous Robin hood-style thief who scandalized Society years before. Unbeknownst to her, the burglar she imitates is the man she's loved since she was twelve.

To save a friend, Major Marcus Dunn, a war hero, is forced to return to the orphanage he swore never to revisit. Marcus must ferret out a traitor to the Crown. Instead, he winds up hunting a copycat criminal who somehow manages to mimic his youthful escapades as the notorious thief of Robinson Square. Little does he know that the quarry he hunts is the staid, blue-stockings lady living under his own roof.
