Major Matt Berman disobeyed his orders and saved the lives of Flame and several other SEALs during an operation in Helmand Province, Afghanistan that went horribly wrong. The act got him busted and killed a promising career. Now that same Matt Berman is in command of a Delta Force team tasked with protecting a CIA outpost near Ramadi, in Iraq. He has a problem—ISIS.

That group has moved far more quickly than anyone in the US command anticipated and now has the outpost surrounded. The government, unwilling to force a confrontation, will not send help. That leaves it up to Flame and his team. They can reach the outpost easily enough—the question is: how do they get out? And while the team is having fun, Dana is working to track down a decorated helicopter pilot who just might be able to get everyone out in one piece...
