Race, Space, and Exclusion: Segregation and Beyond in Metropolitan America (The Metropolis and Modern Life)

Race, Space, and Exclusion: Segregation and Beyond in Metropolitan America (The Metropolis and Modern Life)

This collection of original essays takes a new look at race in urban spaces by highlighting the intersection of the physical separation of minority groups and the social processes of their marginalization. Race, Space, and Exclusion provides a dynamic and productive dialogue among scholars of racial exclusion and segregation from different perspectives, theoretical and methodological angles, and social science disciplines. This text is ideal for upper-level undergraduate or lower-level graduate courses on housing policy, urban studies, inequalities, and planning courses.
