International Relations in Europe, 1689-1789 (Lancaster Pamphlets) J.H. Shennan

Shennan examines the changing criteria upon which European relations were based between 1689 and 1789, a complex period which saw:

- * the decline of dynasticism
- * the emergence of economic power as a concomitant of military might
- * the growth of British influence
- * the dawn of nationalism

For easy reference, this book also contains extensive chronologies of the important battles, treaties and alliances of the period, along with a list of further reading.
