For months, Corrine Lawson has walked a fine line between reality and madness. The only thing keeping her sane is her mysterious next-door neighbor, Ryker. The closer she gets to uncovering the truth about him, the harder it becomes to resist the man who exposes her to a dangerous world steeped in myth and legend. Yet surrendering to him and the sizzling connection that burns between them means succumbing to the madness within, and that's not a fight she's willing to lose.

Both man and wolf, Ryker McKinnon has spent nearly a century tormented by his past, hungering only for vengeance—until he finds Corrine, a spirited human and the key to his redemption. Determined to use Cori as a pawn in a deadly game of revenge, nothing prepares Ryker for the staggering emotion her touch unleashes or the brutal need to claim her as his own.

When Cori is caught in the middle of a bitter feud and a centuries-old greed for Excalibur, will Ryker's secrets destroy the woman he loves or finally awaken the fierceness inside her?
