Soul and the City: Finding God in the Noise and Frenzy of Life Marcy Heidish
Your City Guide to God

Beneath the relentless rhythms of city life beats the heart of God, and award-winning author Marcy Heidish takes you into a more intimate relationship with him in the midst of crowds, chaos, and concrete. Her experiences from a curb in Brooklyn, the bay in San Francisco, a rooftop of Chartres Cathedral in Paris, and the busy halls of Washington, D.C., help you see the city in a new light. She turns common city distractions, annoyances, and challenges into spiritual invitations or “gateways” to a new kind of contemplation where:

- screaming sirens become cues to silent intercession,
- skyscrapers, like spires, pull your eyes and thoughts heavenward,
- and red traffic lights work as “pause” buttons that call for you to stop and pray.

“In the city there is grit,” Marcy writes. And grime and garbage. But her practical tools in every chapter for reflection, discussion, and application help you see—whether you’re visiting, working, or dwelling in Philadelphia or Phoenix, New York or Los Angeles, Seattle or Syracuse—that in the city there is also grace.

Dorothy Betancourt:

Why? Because this Soul and the City: Finding God in the Noise and Frenzy of Life is an unordinary book that the inside of the book waiting for you to snap the item but latter it will zap you with the secret the idea inside. Reading this book adjacent to it was fantastic author who else write the book in such incredible way makes the content inside of easier to understand, entertaining approach but still convey the meaning entirely. So , it is good for you for not hesitating having this ever again or you going to regret it. This amazing book will give you a lot of positive aspects than the other book have got such as help improving your skill and your critical thinking means. So , still want to hold off having that book? If I have been you I will go to the reserve store hurriedly.

Elbert Lupton:

Playing with family in the park, coming to see the marine world or hanging out with close friends is thing that usually you may have done when you have spare time, and then why you don't try factor that really opposite from that. Just one activity that make you not sense tired but still relaxing, trilling like on roller coaster you have been ride on and with addition info. Even you love Soul and the City: Finding God in the Noise and Frenzy of Life, it is possible to enjoy both. It is good combination right, you still desire to miss it? What kind of hangout type is it? Oh come on its mind hangout people. What? Still don't have it, oh come on its identified as reading friends.
