Keith Boutwell, a retired SAS Squadron Sergeant Major, along with three of his mates who are still active with the SAS, formed a group known as "The Core" after eliminating a threat against Keith's life. They vowed to protect their community and take on criminals the police could not, or would not take on.

When one of their own is lying in the hospital close to death, The Core springs into action. A new street drug being sold at local clubs is killing people and Keith and his men must hunt down the leader of the drug ring. Starting with the dealers at the clubs, they ask plenty of questions but take no prisoners. As trained elite forces, they have their own methods of interrogation and exacting justice.

The risks are high and the missions become more dangerous the closer they get to the leader of the ring. Understanding and accepting the risks, they push on even when one of the team members is shot. Their objective is and always will be to eliminate the threat.
