Party of One: Living Single With Faith, Purpose & Passion Beth M. Knobbe

- Ever get stuck at the kids' table at family gatherings?
- Does everyone want to "fix you up" with potential mates?
- Are your dreams on hold until you find someone with whom to share them?

In this candid look at being single, Beth Knobbe draws on the experiences of men and women who share their personal stories and reflections on what it means to be single—with faith, purpose, and passion.

With insights from both Scripture and ordinary people, Knobbe shows us that the single life can be one of abundance and joy. She addresses the fears singles face, the assumptions people make, and the questions singles ask themselves. She includes practical and spiritual advice for finding happiness and contentment as a single person.
