Constantine Arvanitopoulos and Konstantina E. Botsiou Europe at a Crossroads European union?cation has rested on a dual premise. One part was the effort of the European nations to consolidate peace by overcoming the nationalism which had twice drenched the continent in blood in the 20th century. War among West European states became unthinkable in the post-war era. The second part was the creation of a single European economy following the tremendous task of post-war 2 reconstruction and recovery. Over the years the achievement of economic stability was matched by initiatives that aimed to render Western Europe competitive on a global scale. The creation of the European Union (EU) in the 1990s through the Treaties of Maastricht (1992) and Amsterdam (1997), and later Nice (2001), which successively revised the founding Treaties of Rome (1957), was largely a response to the challenge of globalisation. Integration 'rejuvenated' the nation state, thus creating the hybrid of the European welfare state, a mix of state-imposed stability and private initiative. Like its 1 Sforza, C. (1936).
