After losing her mother, Mairead Worthington's life turns upside down— this is when she is sent to live with her wealthy uncle in a private Californian neighborhood. There she attends Mayville Academy— a posh school for the wealthy neighborhood students.

Anxious to start anew, Mairead's first worry is her uncle's stepson, Cade. As children, he made her life a living hell. More than five years after seeing him, Mairead worries that their relationship will be just as terrible— that is, until she arrives at her uncle's mansion.

Cade is now a tall, muscular football player with a powerful demeanor. Suddenly, Mairead finds her heart racing each time she sees him in their home. As the days near to the start of school, Mairead's curiosity leads her to Cade's bedroom late one night. There, she discovers his sensual secrets that dive them into a forbidden affair.
