Land of the Starless Skies: Seven Poems (Unread War Letters (Fiction) Book 1) Jordan D. Kingfisher
In seven poems on the daily reality and horror of war and the yearning for a new dawn and a return for the loved one left behind, Jordan D. Kingfisher brings together fear and hope, love and anger. Both powerful and questioning, the texts deal with the trauma of war and the warrior's ability to overcome fear and loss. Inspired by the courage of soldiers, police officers, firefighters, paramedics etc. as well as by writers like Paulo Coelho, the author finds a voice which transcends the darkness of combat and separation in order to find strength inside and to face one's weaknesses and fears.
