In a village in south-west France, a young Englishwoman, Leonie, meets a quiet, withdrawn man called Patrice. He has no wife, no child, and he refuses ever to get inside a car. Leonie is certain she can help this man, that her love will heal his emotional wounds, but Patrice cannot escape the ghosts of his past. Eventually Leonie discovers the shocking truth. Five years before, Patrice was living in England. He was called Patrick, and he was a loving husband and father. Until one fateful summer day changed his life for ever.
