"I always knew I was different, ever since momma said I had a black heart. She was always cussing me, telling me I would grow up to be no good."

So starts this erotic tale of one young lady's sexual awakening. A sexy half naked girl in the local store is the catalyst that sets Honey on a passionate walk down memory lane. As she follows the beautiful stranger through the streets, she recounts her disturbing experiences in prison that she has kept hidden from herself for far too long. Will she have the courage to open her heart? Or is it just the stranger's legs that she wants to open? Honey must reconcile the feelings of love and lust that drive her soul on this hottest of hot summer nights in the city.

This is a bittersweet tale of over 6,000 words full of passion that will have you smiling with a tear in your eye and will satisfy a very certain type of itch. Mature readers only.
