When You Are With Me (Forever and Ever #21) E. L. Todd

Sean reaches his breaking point. He can't handle the paranoia, the constant looking over his shoulder. He'll never be safe, and he'll never feel whole again. But Scarlet says something that puts everything in perspective. And for the first time, he can breathe again.

Conrad is having fun spending time with Lexie, but his dad has a serious conversation with him, telling him that relationships aren't as terrible as they seem. Perhaps it would work out with the right person. Conrad rejects everything he says.

Trinity and Slade have another fight, and this one is blown to epic proportions. But it will end in a way neither one of them suspected. Will they be able to recover?

Ward and Cayson hate each other more than ever, and when Ward says something unforgiveable, Cayson wants to break his neck. But when Skye sits them down and tells them to work out their problems, Cayson discovers something about Ward he never knew.

Clementine prepares for the baby, and when she gets her first crib she realizes she can't build it on her own. After several attempts, she gives up, doubting her ability as a mother. Then someone stops by and chases that fear away.
