Many remarkable gifts have come out of the Pendle Hill experience, but few are more remarkable than the series of Pendle Hill Pamphlets, ongoing now for seventy-eight years. Conceived as the published equivalent of messages spoken in a Friends' meeting for worship, these brief essays reflect the range and vision of unprogrammed Quaker religious thought and practice. Among the authors represented here are a handful of famous names, such as Toynbee, Weil, and Buber. But for the most part the pamphlets are the works of a "cloud of witnesses" distinguished primarily for their spirit and expressiveness. And while there are recurring themes among them (peace, worship, art), the four hundred-plus titles cover almost as many topics. Over the years, many readers have commented on the richness of spiritual resources and information represented in these essays. Many have also asked for help in using them in study, reflection, and research. This index is designed to answer that need. It includes four sections: Section I is an annotated list of the pamphlets. This list is in numerical order, and the pamphlet number serves as a crossreference tool throughout the index. Each listing includes title, author, date of publication (in parentheses), a brief summary of the essay, and its subjects. Section II groups the pamphlets alphabetically by author. Section III lists the pamphlets alphabetically by title. Section IV offers a subject index for the pamphlets.
