Photographer Jorn Vangoidtsenhoven (vangophotos.com) and his wife, Haichong, quit their jobs, sold their house, bought an RV, and hit the road full-time to explore Mexico and Central America. This book describes their experiences traveling with their two year old dog, Sophie: from Mexico all the way south to the Panama Canal. On their 150 day road trip, they encountered beautiful colonial cities, volcanoes, beaches, great food, friendly and welcoming locals; as well as corrupt officials, immigration issues and other assorted problems an 'overlander' has to deal with. This book includes: - Campsites, including GPS coordinates and altitudes - Descriptions of locations visited throughout Central America - How they prepared for the trip: RV choice, gear, insurance, security - Recommendations and resources
