Holy Noise: Filtering the Questions of Church Musicians Kenneth Powers

Holy Noise: Filtering the Questions of Church Musicians is a book about the effects that come with serving the Lord musically in congregational life. The author views singers, ringers, players, technicians, and leaders as disciples who commit selflessly and religiously toward the Kingdom's goals of worship, proclamation, fellowship, truth, and righteousness as they express their faith in witness to God's love. Drama, humor, poetry, true stories, fictitious tales, and scriptural interpretations stand out to make points about how human nature intersects the artistic expressions and interpretations of the faithful. This book is a primer and tune-up for your continued service.
